

Attn WVU: We Want Rich Rod

Created by Jim Dierwechter on Dec 06, 2006

History/Description:

WVU Needs to Step Up. This is a 24 hour petition drive, starting 8:30am on 12/6/6.

Petition:

Attn WVU:

As fans, we are committed to a winning football program. We have read the stories and have tried to educate ourselves on the issues of Coach Rodriguez possibly going to Alabama.

As a result, we want WVU to commit to a winning program too. We do not want to be reminded of what occurred last June. We want to focus on the needs of Coach Rodriguez and his staff as they continue to take our program into the upper echelon of college football.

We, as fans, are willing to accept a ticket price increase if necessary.

WVU, get the job done. Get Rich and his staff their needs.

Please do NOT be short-sighted on this. You keep quoting how this is a business like any other... and you need to balance the checkbooks.

Well, do what any other business would do... pass on the costs to the consumer, i.e. the fans. As this petition shows, we are willing to pay for the product WE WANT.

And, we want RICH.

You have been very positive role model for me during the time at WVU. I hope you will stay for many years to come. From the time you were hired, the time you took out of your schedule to call following my kidney transplant, to turning the corner for WVU football. That is a true mountaineer.

1760 Jim Copenhaver

We have a winning program. It's taken five years to build what we have now, and to start over would be very damaging not only to WVU, but to the Big East and its attempts to continue its new-found sense of excellence.

I've been a season ticket holder for 22 years now (Class of 82). It appears to me that Coach Rod is trying to do nothing but improve our program to keep it up with the big boys of college football. Don't be shortsighted. I'm willing to bet that Coach Rod will take half of what Alabama is offering if you simply take care of his support staff and upgrade the facilities. In the end he is trying to do the best for WVU football.

1752 Jeremy Day

Back to signature list

KEEP COACH ROD!!! Do what it takes, he has done a lot for us and it's time for payback. I would pay more for tickets if it meant keeping our coaching staff.

I have been really proud of the accomplishments of Rich and his staff, and I am as enthusiastic about WVU football as I am about UNC basketball---and that's saying a lot!! We need to do whatever it takes to keep Rich!! We would have jumped at the chance to get him at UNC this year when Bunting left. You can't expect him to stay when others value his services more than we do! KEEP HIM!!

1741 Walter Young

WVU Alumni 1985, Coach Rodriguez is the best we've seen. Lets take care of him and honor what was promised.

Sometimes you have to spend a little more to go first class, maybe the Athletic Dept. enjoys being second class. Coach Rod's leadership is good for all of WVU and WVa.

I have been a fan of WVU Football since I was old enough to know what the sport was. I enjoyed the all the seasons (winning and losing) that I witnessed while the program was under Don Nehlen. Let's not forget that Don Nehlen never had the success at WVU that Rich Rodriguez is having right now in each year.

I want him to stay and keep his staff intact. My fear is that he will leave and take talented coaches with him. That said, if I were offered a $2 million raise, guaranteed for seven years, I'd probably leave - but nobody would miss me.

If he goes, he will take his hero status with him, never to be enjoyed again with West Virginians. He will be just another mercenary.

We shall soon see what is his prime motivation.

Coach Rod, Never has WVU football had a brighter future than now and we owe a great deal of that to you and your staff. We (the mountaineer nation) have almost climbed to the top of the mountain under your leadership and losing you could be the biggest blow our program has ever sustained. I understand you have to follow your dreams and do right by your family, but know that the whole state looks up to you and dreams of the day when we win a NC or have a Heisman winner. You our best hope.

I have been a season ticket holder for many years. We gave up our season tickets this year with our move to FI. We still came back to WV to see 2 home games. We go to the bowl games each year. Rich does a great job. Step up to the plate and commit to keeping him. It is amazing how many people still don't realize WV is a state and not part of Virginia but when you mention WVU football everyone knows who we are. This is not only for WVU but for the state of WV.

1571 Brad Davis

I am more than willing to sacrifice an extra 5 dollars per ticket to keep Coach Rod at WVU. I think the Athletic Dept. should do everything in its power to keep one of the best and brightest coaches in the nation here in his home state. I'm willing to go the extra mile if that's what it takes. I hope WVU's powers-that-be are too. Hail West Virginia!!!!!!!

1563 Justin Morgan

Back to signature list

Lets keep Coach Rod. Pay him what he deserves. He's not even the highest paid coach in the Big East! Hello, he deserves to be...

If you want to compete like a top school, you have to pay your coaches like a top school. Look what the man has done for our football progam.

1550 John Minnich

Back to signature list

It would be detrimental to Mountaineer football if Coach Rod left. We CANNOT become national championship contenders year in and year out if we can't keep our coach for a decent amount of time, like 10 or 20 years. Look at Frank Beamer and Bobby Bowden.

Love the fact that Coach Rod is a WVU alum and think he's done a tremendous job. Hiring someone new would reflect instability in the program, opening the door for doubt with blue-chip recruits that have already mentally committed to the Mountaineers. We're on the path to be an elite D1A program, so don't shake it up! And by God, schedule some tougher non-conference opponents while you're at it!

I sit in a weird position on this subject.I am a alabama fan and a WVU fan.Not one over the other.The fact of the matter is Alabama would be no good for you.They are looking for a quick fix(and a good coach).Alabama does sell out every game,no matter what, plus 10 or so nation championship titles.But if you have two bad seasons in a row, or you just cannot beat auburn your canned. WVU is a place that loves their coach and the game of football.You already won the hearts of wvu and morgantown.

Please let Rich know that he is important to WVU's football future. Don't give away the farm, but the tractor, the barn, the house and the best milk cow would be ok with me.

1426 Brandon Dillow Back to signature list

Coach Rod is my hero. He has taken this team so far in the last 2 years and i believe he will be great next year.

1425 Shawnta Fair Back to signature list

Please don't go Rich Rod. You are the face of the mountaineers. Leaving will not help Bama's situation, I don't care how much money talks. West Virginia fans believe in second chances and loyalty, Bama fans don't.

1420 Larry Oliver Back to signature list

It is important that we keep Coach Rod, a native and graduate, to achieve success in football at WVU.

1419 Mackenzie Cutright Back to signature list

I as a fan will do anything asked of me to retain Coach Rodriguez's services as head coach of the West Virginia Mountaineers

1418 Alex Kent Back to signature list

PLEASE DON'T LET COACH ROD LEAVE WVU!!!!!!!!!!!!

1417 Justin Morgan Back to signature list

Rich Rodriguez has done so much for our program, to lose him will set us back years to rebuild. Please do not let him go. Think of all the lost revenue during the new coach rebuilding years, you will sustain, missed bowl opportunities. Rich needs to feel comfortable at WVU if we as alumni need to set up and donate more to keep him then so be it.

1414 Rich Tee Back to signature list

RICH ROD IS A GOOD COACH..WVU NEEDS TO STEP UP AND KEEP HIM.

1390 Jack Evelyn

1384 Mark Perry

Back to signature list

Coach, you have brought us to the promise land. We depend on you, more than you can ever realize. You, are our hero, You're the greatest coach on this planet, as far as I'm concerned. We need Coach Rod at West Virginia University! As A die hard fan, please, don't leave us

1380 Deborah Harvey

Back to signature list

We need you Rich!

1377 elizabeth stewart

Back to signature list

Holy Crap! Offer the Coach what he needs. I have been in Georgia watching hairy dogs and gators. If South Carolina boosters can step up to get Holtz and Spurrier, who have not done nearly the job Coach Rich has done, what DOES that say about WVU? With the Peach Bowl and Elite 8, I bought a WVU banner, three stickers for my car and have enjoyed every Ga. fan looking at them. The morale of the whole state and every fan is at stake here. Gov. Mansion & the state need to get behind OUR native son

1376 Julian Gasataya

Back to signature list

Optimistically looking forward for CRR to stay and lead the Mountaineers to MNC.

Hopefully for the WVU administration to fully carry out CRR's vision in supporting him in developing the Mountaineer's football program to be able to compete with other football conferences. In CRR we trust.

1374 Jenney Springer

Back to signature list

I am originally from West Virginia and am still a WVU football fan. Rich Rodriguez has done great things to improve WVU's football program. WVU football is on its way up and it would be a shame for this upward climb to be cut short.

1373 Filip Fil

Back to signature list

1319 Margot Powell

Back to signature list

I love watching the Mountaineers with my Daddy. We have a Mountaineer light that we turn on every morning that the Mountaineers play, except for two this year, which the Mountaineers lost because we didn't turn the light on. Coach Rod, don't leave WVU and turn off the light. I like when we win.

1315 William E. Gaunt Jr

Back to signature list

1292 Jeremy Blumenfeld

Coach Rodriguez is the ideal coach for WVU and the University should do everything in its power to make sure he and his staff receive whatever they feel necessary to bring a national championship to WVU.

1291 Travis Eckley

Back to signature list

If Pastilong can't get it done it may be time for someone else as AD (Jerry West). Likewise, Gov. Manchin should be involved like Rockefeller was for Nehlen in the 80's. Concentrate on WVU rather than MU for a change.

1290 Donald Mock

I hope every Mountaineer Fan signs this. Lets keep Coach Rod in Morgantown!!!

I LOVE RICH ROD! Keep him here and give him money to get a new defensive coordinator.

1262 Michael Loftus

Back to signature list

If you let Rich Rod get away, you will lose valuable publicity and a much needed rejuvenation of the recruiting class...

1258 Chad Eagle

Back to signature list

Coach Rodriguez has and will continue to take WVU to heights not seen before at WVU if he continues as coach here.

It would be a travesty on the part of the Athletic Department and Administration to let another outstanding coach go by inaction.

If WVU will not fight to keep Coach Rodriguez, then go ahead and allow him to leave and watch him succeed in bringing Alabama back to prominence while watching WVU return to the mires of mediocrity. If the school cares then make it so!

if we want to be a top 10 program then we must pay our coaches likewise. if however we don't want to be in that category then lets drop down to 1-aa status and de-emphasize football. i don't want anywhere in the middle. why go for mediocre when you can go for the top echelon. i feel the fans are willing to pay a little extra to get to this plateau

1240 Jack Hall

1219 Hue Boyle-marlatt

Back to signature list

As a graduate of WVU and a wife of former WVU football player Pat Marlatt, Coach Rod needs to stay and help the program grow and the university flourish. In the past few years it has and will continue with Coach Rod. The University can do what they can to keep coach Rod.

1218 Robert Arnett

Back to signature list

We have had great succes with coach Rod and next year looks very promising with all the talent we have returning. It would be a shame to lose coach at this time. He and his staff have worked hard to bring not only WV Football but also Big East Football back to what all fans expect. So lets keep him.

1145 J.R. Fox

Back to signature list

I want to see us do what it takes to keep this our head coach. No reason why our coach should be the fifth highest paid coach in the Big East. In order for WVU to be an institution that can compete on the BCS level and win championships, we have to be on par with other institutions. Lets make this happen and you will see WVU shine for years to come.

1143 Susan Jones

Back to signature list

Please hold on to Coach Rod!

1134 Samuel Smith

Back to signature list

Please stay Coach Rod!!! You know your heart will always be in WV!!! Mine sure is!!

1131 Kathryn Sayre

You just cannt make statements like you did Friday and then leave; it's not WV style.

1119 George Hall

Back to signature list

Rich Rodriguez is a very valuable asset to this state and this University. His services need to be retained if we are in danger of losing them.

1118 Daniel Bell

1104 Jennifer Sharp

Back to signature list

PLEASE DONT LET US LOSE RICH!!!!!!!!!!!!!! How disappointing would that be to lose an alumni who thought this was going to be there dream job, force them to uproot his family just for more money, then let ALABAMA reap his benefits instead of us??? And what about Alabama!!!! THIEVES!!!!

1083 Edward Devlin IV

Back to signature list

EP,

Please do whatever WVU can legitimately do w/in it's budgets to maintain Rich Rodriguez as WVU's head football coach.

Thanks

Ed

1080 James Gainer

Back to signature list

Please work the coaching situation through. Will likely cost more in the long run to hire a new coach. WV Football is the state's best PR vehicle.

1076 Pat Trammell

Back to signature list

I love Alabama, but I think you are at home coach and the people of WV care more for you than anyone. Stay Home, Good Luck, and Roll Tide.

1075 Jonathan Green

Back to signature list

Keeping RRod is premier to Athletic Dept financial success.

1069 Shayne Baldwin

Back to signature list

To lose him to another school would be crippling to our football program.

1068 Don Thigpen

Back to signature list

I'm voting for Rodriguez to stay at West Virginia. I don't want him at Alabama.

1045 Jay Johnson

Back to signature list

keep Rod here!!!

1042 Marvin Franklin

Back to signature list

I would hope that the University and the State will put their best efforts into this, understanding that the quantifiable near term costs of replacing our Coach coupled with the disruption of the considerable momentum of our football program needs to be avoided. Anything short of that would border on incompetence at best and negligence at worst. Thank you.

1040 Victoria Markowicz

Back to signature list

Although I want Coach R. to stay at WVU, I think he would be stupid not to take the offer from Alabama. It is such a good opportunity for him. If people really cared about him, they'd want him to do what's best for his career.

1037 Mark Egolf

Back to signature list

I suggest that the MAC start a massive fundraising campaign to reach out to WVU alumni.

1033 Mara Schafer

Back to signature list

DO WHATEVER TO KEEP COACH ROD -- WE DON'T NEED TO LOSE A GREAT COACH!!

1030 Thomas Garland

Back to signature list

If Rich is going to go for more money for the sake of his family, it's his decision to make. I'd like to see him stay, but his primary obligation is to his wife and children. Some people say how much money can one spend anyway. As a father, it's all about securing a bright future for one's kids. I hope Rich stays but I'll understand if he decides he needs to leave.

Rod,

Please don't go. You have done wonders for this state. I wouldn't let anyone talk about you for your first 3 years. Because you needed to get your players in. Now look we have a chance next year to win. Hang in there.

1017 Daniel Hamrick

Back to signature list

If WVU cannot afford to keep Rich Rodriguez and John Beilein, it is unable to recognize the realities of the current coach marketplace. If that is the case, it cannot afford big-time athletics and might as well announce the downgrading of both programs. But you can then forget alumni support. I got sick to my stomach with Gale Catlett. Now, you must not only keep these coaches but put an end to the annual encroachment on them.

1011 Ryan C. McAlister

Back to signature list

Coach Rod has been a great asset to WVU. It's great to have someone dedicated to a program and to a state he holds dear as well. I only hope that he wants us as much as we want him!!!

930 Eric South

Back to signature list

As a donating alumni and loyal Mountaineer fan who attends at least 2 games per year, I have no problem with a slight raise in ticket prices ($10-$15). However, this may not benefit our attendance as many loyal WVU fans and attendees break the bank to watch their beloved Mountaineers. I believe we should put more focus on boosters and fundraising to see that we provide the WVU football program with adequate salaries, facilities, and most important of all, support for our team and our University.

We need to get rich what he wants if we want to get the recruits he wants and keep the staff that is needed to shortly win a national championship. I'd be willing to bet from now on out if he gets what he ask for we will be seeing a BCS bowl 3 out 5 years and that is not short term that is for along time to come so WVU will bring in much more students because of the increase in fans of our sports and the exposure of our university and not to mention the money from the bowls. win win situation.

865 Tim Miley

Back to signature list

Get the job done...raise ticket prices (and/or concessions) by $15/head...multiply that by an average attendance of 55,000 over 6 home games and you're looking at nearly $5MM...put all of the financial issues to bed for good.

862 Brett Neuenschwander

Back to signature list

Mr. Pastilong,

Do what must be done to keep Coach Rodriguez. No excuses, if you wish to keep WVU football and Big East football relevant, then spend the money. I cant help but believe that a small investment 2-3 million, would not pay much bigger dividends in the future.

Life long Mountaineer Fan,

I remember talking to my dad about the coaching position at WVU before they hired Rich, we both were die hard believers that he was the right choice for the job while alot of folks were coveting Terry Bowden. I lost my dad to a heart attack Oct 2, 2003 after Quincy Wilson ran over the Miami player. The following week our family received a card from Rich and Mountaineers. It is something that I will always treasure and hope to get the oppurtunity to thank Coach Rod in person. STAY HOME RICH!

Hello, Coach Rod must stay. Everyone around this state wants us to win a championship next year. Thats his mission!! Remember, our school fight song "Hail West Virginia". Our winning that championship is all about that. "Theres naught to fear the gangs all here." GO MOUNTAINEERS!!!

Back to signature list

Rich Rodriguez can take this program to heights it has never seen before; it would be foolish to let him go elsewhere.

834 Keenan Cummings

Back to signature list

We must keep Rich Rodriguez. He is turning this program into a top ten football program. If we expect Rich to make a commitment to this University, the University must first make a commitment to Rich and help him upgrade the facilities and pay his assistant coaches higher wages.

831 Gregory Tallman

Back to signature list

I hope beyond hope that there are things happening behind the scenes in the athletic department to not only retain Rich Rodriguez but to ensure that he and the department powers are on the same page... that is to bring a national title to West Virginia University in football.

If Coach Rodriguez' vision is not shared the athletic department should state as much publicly rather than pointing out what they did last year. Complacency is contagious and deadly. We need vision and commitment.

828 Scott Johnson

824 Chad Ueltschy

I am an alum who feels the Athletic department needs to commit to a winning tradition. That is what Coach Rod brings. Football and Basketball make all the money there. Why did Wrestling get a new facility? Pony up before you embarrass and upset Alum and more importantly an entire state.

823 Todd Heare

Back to signature list

I am a season ticket holder who wants our program to continue the rise that we have started and i feel that to do that Rich needs to be here and he needs a raise in pay and he needs the facilities to be upgraded to the standard that he wants them. So if you want that stadium to continue to be sold out and continue to produce revenue for the school you better open up the check book and keep him here as coach.

If the President of the University and AD let this coach leave they have done a disservice to the institution they work for and all the current students, faculty, staff, alumni to which they are responsible. They should therefore be held accountable and resign or be replaced if they allow this to take place. These are the same two yoyo's that allowed the Rifle Team to be disbanded. People always want winners and we have two of the best in college sports in football and basketball.

I've been a WVU fan for a long time, in good seasons and bad. I have to say that Coach Rod's time at WVU has been some of the most exciting I've seen. It would be a real shame to let such a great coach slip away. I hope that you do all that you can to meet Coach Rod's needs even if that means an increase in ticket prices.

795 Erin Nichols

Back to signature list

WVU has a strong athletic program and with that comes loyal fans. I would be willing to pay extra on my season tickets or individual tickets so we do not lose the dynamic football coaching team we have.

794 Kristian Robinson

Back to signature list

WVU is never going to be Harvard, so let's be known for something. I've waited to long, suffered to much to lose RR to "the tide". Don't let us fall back to middle of the road. We are to close. Buck up, WVU, that is buckskin the Mountaineer wears, right? Yeah, I think that's buckskin. Good pun.

788 David Hahn Mr. Hahn

Back to signature list

Let not gamble with WVU's future please. If we lose coach Rod this the stereotypes of being a mid major program will resurface.

If WVU can't keep one of their own then the job will become a stepping stone to bigger Universities from here on out.

787 Jake Toothman

Back to signature list

I hope Rich stays, sometimes money is not important, we need him to know we are behind him and the program, and will do what needs done to make it a power house program year in and year out.

780 Thomas Cummings

777 William Nichols

Back to signature list

We cannot afford to be short-sighted on this. Coach Rodriguez has brought us into the national limelight and I believe the best is yet to come. Project the increased revenues in bowl appearances, merchandise sales, tv appearances and potential stadium expansions based on increased attendance and I think you would conclude that now is the time to invest heavily. If we fail to do that, we could quickly become a second-tier program.

I would be willing to pay more per ticket to see Coach Rod stay in Morgantown. He has given hope to the Mountaineer program so they should respond by giving him and his team what they need to continue to develop kids like Slaton and White. It would be a shame to see their talent go to waste if we should have to go to a different style of offense. It is what has made us successful. You are a Mountaineer Rod!! Stay true!!

754 Dennis Bonnstetter

753 danny goodwin

Back to signature list

The money has gotten ridiculous, of course, but here's the fact: If we want to be a top team in college football consistently, we will have to pay to do it. No, we can't compete financially with some, but please be as aggressive as you can now -- not with the next coach. And for goodness sakes, never lose a coach because of failure to communicate and extend common courtesies. The mark of good leadership is the willingness to be proactive. Please, step up for Mountaineer football.

I would hope that he stays. We can't build a truly winning team if we change coaches every few years. Another thing, if he goes and can't beat Auburn, will they fire him too? Money isn't everything. He should look at the other reasons to stay at his Alma Mater. We'll be fans no matter what, but we sure hope he thinks long and hard before leaving.

676 Brian Hilton

Back to signature list

Get this done. Keep our coach.

674 Doug Jarrett

Back to signature list

Rod and his staff need to be paid at least near what Bobby Petrino and Greg Schiano make. He has accomplished alot more than both of them has. In the interim of bickering back and forth about money...recruits and donors like myself are becoming restless. I am not going to continue to invest time and money into a program that is going to be a "stepping stone" for coaches. WVU is an upper echelon institution and needs to pay the coaches commissurate with their current status and profits!

672 Robert McMahan

Back to signature list

Coach, you have built on the legacy left by Don Nehlen and this program is going in the right direction to make a run at a National Championship.

You have poured your heart and soul (along with your assistants) into this thing. Think about WVU, your hometown and family in W.Va.

I would love to, and I am trying to , move back to W.Va. and work in Fairmont. I would love to go to games and know your the coach of the Mountaineers.

WVU's football program is perhaps the most wide ranging exposure our university has. WVU athletics is a major selling point for WVU, and the image that is being portrayed is a very positive one by Rich Rodriguez, John Belien, Mike Carey, Greg VanZant and the other WVU coaches. Why would we let this positive visibility be destroyed by maintaining salaries and facilities less than that required for perennial top ten programs? Pay/give our coaches what is necessary, or create a negative image.

Back to signature list

We need to keep Rich Rod coaching the Mountaineers. He has built up the program to where it is today. Back to back double digit regular season victories. Four straight New Year's Day Bowls. Probably back to back bowl victories. When has the team been better? What about National perception of this university? We need to keep him. I'm sure the University can't afford 3 Million per year, and I know his contract was just re-negotiated. He is underpaid as far as college coaches go.

I absolutely love WVU football and would hate to see any member of the team, any coach, or staff member leave. I believe to keep the spirits of both the team and the town up, we need to keep everyone that we can. It's a given that senior members will graduate and go on to bigger and better things, but I don't believe that we could find better coaches or staff. What we have now is phenomenal.

511 James Jim

Back to signature list

When Gov. Manchin said that we must present WVU to the nation in a positive light in all aspects of our state, what one thing has presented a more positive image of our state than the football team winning big games? Coach Rod should be the highest paid coach in the Big East and his coaches should receive a like pay increase. What happen to the study area promised? It takes money to make money. Pay Coach Rod the top salary in the Big East and the University and the state will reap the benefits.

509 Kevin Schrader

I am a season ticket holder and have absolutely NO PROBLEM paying either an additional fee or a raise in ticket prices in order to keep Coach Rod...do what needs to be done to keep him in Old Gold and Blue.

495 Tim Boyd

Back to signature list

I am a WVU alum that can see the advantages for the University and State in having a first class coach for the football program. College football is really a coaches game and we have a top tier coach in the making. Let's not let him leave on the basis of money. Don't let another University steal him out from under us only to find out later that we could have kept him if we had negotiated a better contract.

491 katherine justice

Back to signature list

Please do whatever it takes to keep Coach Rod and his staff.

West Virginia football has come so far under his tenure and I feel a coaching change at this time would not be a good move on our part.

As a loyal fan and ticket buyer I would be glad to accept a ticket price increase in order to keep our coaches and improve our facilities.

Thank you,

I would not object to higher ticket prices or other ways to, in conjunction with, keep our coaching staff. They have created consistency in the program and seem to have a very solid recruiting strategy. The money and PR that the football program brings is essential to the growth and prosperity of the University. Don't allow the corrupt Alabama Boosters buy off

Coach Rod. Alumni will pay more to save Coach Rod. These big companies in WV need to step up. The economies will change if WVU sucks

This is a turning point in the program and I hope the Administration will be proactive and get the man what he needs to make us a top 10 program. Short changing him now will cost you in the future. WVU administration should be ashamed, as they are happiest when WVU is medicore. When WVU is 7-4 or 8-3, noone is asking for a raise, noone is trying to take our coaches, and the WVU administration doesn't have to work as hard. As a MAC donor, if RR leaves, I will have to rethink my future giving as what is it really going towards?

350 Ronald Schupbach

Back to signature list

As a season ticket holder and a life long Mountaineer fan I want Coach Rod back on the sidelines next season!!!

Losing Coach Rodriguez to another state school when he is a born and raised native and alumni of West Virginia University would be very detrimental to both our university and the athletic department. I support and have always supported my alma mater in anyway that I can, but if we were to lose Coach Rod I would lose complete faith in our current administration.

297 Wes Garrett

Back to signature list

It should be a no-brainer to provide the resources needed to make WVU football competitive with the top echelon schools. WVU lived in mediocrity until 2001 and the increased revenue potential is worth the expenditures. If WVU loses Rodriguez, the entire Athletic Department should be held accountable. There can be no excuses.

The loss of Rich Rod would be devastating to mountaineer fans everywhere. This is our chance to be among the best every year. If Rich leaves, it will not merely be a missed opportunity, instead the greatest loss that the mountaineer nation has ever suffered. Why do you think Alabama wants him so bad? Its because he's that good! If this administration lets Couch Rodriguez slip away, you will not only be turning your backs on him, but also on every WVU student, alumni, and fan.

Please don't let the big east become a stepping stone conference for "Better" conferences to just come in and take our coaches. After losing three teams to the ACC we need stability to gain respect around the nation and keeping Coach Rod we be a great start.

with 5 straight bowl games, back to back 10 win seasons, and with a win in the gator bowl back to back top 10 finishes i believe coach rod has earned the right to be called one of the nations elite coaches. if giving him and his staff raises is what it takes to keep him here, please do this. we are great football fans and should be rewarded by our athletic department showing us a strong commitment to continually putting an elite program on the field for us to enjoy. thank you for your time.

The man obiously wants to stay, but wants his pay to be comensurate with other coaches viewed to be at the same level.

He is good for the School and the State. Lets do what we can to keep him.

A university's commitment to academics is balanced by it's success in athletics. WVU's overall success has been highlighted by our recent success in college football, led by Coach Rich Rodriguez. He is a native son who excels on the national stage and he needs to be retained by his and our beloved university. The administration of WVU needs to do everything possible to ensure that our legacy is preserved and our success both on and off the football field continues.

Amen,

This is the only major sports or entertainment our state has to offer. The legislature should help too. We can get a quality coach like Rich for a bargain basement price but we have to show some support for the program. The man wants for the program not the pocket book. Get him what he needs.. WVU is the Pride of West Virginia and so is Rich.

If Coach Rod's agenda is to line his own pockets then allow him to go. If it's about improving the program then we need to figure out a way to keep him.

The WVU Athletic Department is at a crossroads. We must either decide that we are striving for greatness or satisfied with mediocrity of a team not quite good enough to go to the next level. The place is here and the time is now, don't let us down.

Coach Rod and his staff have done so much for our football program and the image of our university. It is imperative we do all that is necessary to keep him here!

If Coach Rod leaves you will MAC donations and season ticket sales decrease dramatically! This will not only impact our football program but all athletics at WVU. The fans want and ARE WILLING to support a big time program. We are close, let's not give up all we have accomplished thus far!

We are experiencing the golden era of WVU football. It would be a shame to see that all end now when so much greatness is yet to be had. Rich Rodriguez is taking us to new heights and has us in position to be national title contenders on a yearly basis.

I urge you to do everything in your power to assure he stays at WVU!

I am amember or the Directors Club for 25 years. WVU must give coach Rod the tools to be sucessful. If the Athletic Administration loses this oprotunity, we will become middle of the pack BE program, and the resources to get back to the top will be far greater than today.

WVU needs to do whatever it takes to keep coach Rodriguez. He could have gone to any school in the country, but he wanted to come to his alma mater for what he called his "dream job". He took a good football program into a great football program. If WVU is going to remain a national championship contender, we need Coach Rodriguez at the helm.

Coach Rod has brought more to WVU than just a winning football program. The kids he has been recruiting appear to be the type of kids we want representing our Great State. Coach Rod and his staff have done an excellent job in the past 6 years with our program and has gained the national attention to our program that every WVU fan thinks we deserve. Please at all costs, help us keep Coach Rod and his staff!!!! No matter what happens with Coach Rod, my love for WVU Football will never die!

Rich Rodriguez has done so much not only for WVU football, but for the school and state. He is charismatic and has brought hope and confidence to the team that I don't believe West Virginian's have ever experienced. He is most definitely worth a raise on tickets and I doubt you'll hear many complaints about it. Please don't sit back and let Alabama spoil our fun up here. You know what's right, for the fans, for the team, for the state.

69 Joshua Jones

I would hope our Administration will do everything within reason to keep a West Virginian native with the talent and ability as a coach to take us to levels our football program has never been.
